Obituary

Collier S. Hall was born November 1, 1973 to Dorothy Lee Hall and the late Collier Steven Copeland in Newark, NJ.

Collier better known as “Khalife” or “Cope” was educated in Newark Public Schools and attended West Side High School where he received his diploma. Khalife was a work-a-holic, he worked numerous jobs until his employment with Amazon where he worked as a supervisor.

Khalife was a Funny, Charming, Loving, Devoted, Crazy, Hard-working, Independent, and most of all Protective man. Khalife loved and catered to his family and would do anything for them at the drop of a dime. Khalife loved Music, Food, Family and most of all women. In his spare time Khalife loved being around his children and made sure he enstored knowledge in all of them. Khalife made sure that his children knew what it was to be independent. Khalife was well known and well respected and will be deeply missed.

Khalife leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Dorothy L. Hall, sisters; Conyia Hall, Lashonda Hall, and Sharonda Hammonds, brother; Kishmar Madison, 4 Children; Khalif Bewley, Khaheem Bewley, Zahirah Bewley, and Kishayia Heath, and a host of other relatives and friends. Khalife is predeceased by his father, Collier S. Copeland and his grandmother, Mary Ruth Hall.

I'm Not Judging You I talk to God to let him know how I been feeling He said son I'm not judging you, Now That were having this talk Your past is your past I've seen how you changed your life around and been doing the best that you can.

So I'm not judging you.

That's why I need you here with me. So you don't have to bring No clothes, cellphone, Or forwarded no address I have all your needs covered But wait what about my family My mother, kids, sister, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, and my close friends. God since you been watching me you know how I love them all. I know they will be fine cause you are leaving them with memories If it wasn't the right time I would leave you behind so don't question my decision because I'm not judging you.
