Obituary

Helen Lorraine Jenkins was born on May 6, 1931 in Montclair, NJ to the late Albert Daggett and the late Christine Daggett. Helen was educated in the Montclair, NJ school system and was affectionately known as “Lorraine” throughout her life. Lorraine worked for the United Presbyterian Hospital for thirty years where she retired. Lorraine was a very outgoing person who loved music and dancing. She loved going to Atlantic City and loved the New York Yankees. Lorraine loved life and to meet her was to love her.

On August 3, 1957, Helen married the late Raymond James Jenkins and from this union they were blessed with four children. She quietly departed this life to be with the Lord on Monday, November 2, 2015. Preceding her in death: three brothers, the late Charles Daggett, Albert Daggett, Warren Daggett and Curtis Daggett, one sister, Mildred Daggett, also preceding her in death one son, Kent Taylor Jenkins.

She is survived by: a daughter, Karen Munford (Beaumont) of Montclair, NJ; sons, Kevin Jenkins (Josephine) of Montclair, NJ and Keith Jenkins (Yolanda M.) of Herinco, VA; a daughter-in-law, Yolanda R. Jenkins of West Orange, NJ; grandchildren, Lamar Jenkins, Eshe’ Wilson (Kiawanna), Kaseem Jenkins, Terrence Munford, Ikeef Jenkins, Zayn Jenkins (Latina), Jasmin Jenkins, Joy Jenkins, Jade Jenkins and Kerwin Marshall; great grandchildren, Rakya Jenkins, Z’Hara Jenkins, Michael Jenkins, Malcolm Jenkins, Mia Jenkins, Ikeef Jenkins, Jr., and Quasim Jenkins; sister, Bernice D. Williams; sister-in-law, Ruth James; niece, Christine Brown (Caruso); nephew, Chris Rice; and a host of relatives and friends.

Our Beloved

Sad moments are never easy,
no matter how much we prepare for the day.
For the heart can never be ready,
to accept our loved one's going away.

No matter how great the pain,
nor the countless tears that fall;
there is no way to avoid the eternal journey,
when God issues His heavenly call.

There seems nothing about tomorrow,
that we're really ready to face.
When tomorrow comes without the one we love,
everything we touch seems out of place.

Yes, our souls cry out for an answer to the unbearable pain we feel.
Our broken heart yearns desperately
to be mended, soothed and healed.

But healing comes when our grief is placed in the Master's hands.
For no matter how troubled we feel right now,
we know that God truly understands.
For God gives us precious memories
that when nurtured, will never go away.
And we can rest in the Blessed Assurance,
that in time, we will join our beloved one day.
