Obituary

Kyam Wyatt was born December 18, 1969 at Miseracordia Hospital in the Bronx, New York to Raymond and Carole Wyatt. Growing up in New York City, Kyam attended Harlem Montessori and P.S. 158 Elementary Schools. He was an active member of the elite Knickerbocker Greys Boy's Club where he earned the rank of corporal.

At the age of eleven, Kyam, his mother and older brother Demiel, relocated to Dover, Delaware. Kyam attended junior high and high school in the Caesar Rodney School District and graduated from Plainfield High School in Plainfield, New Jersey in 1987. He later attended college at Delaware State University. After college, Kyam decided to serve his country by enlisting as an Airman in the United States Air Force. He was honorably discharged with the rank of Airman First Class. Kyam was later graced with a precious son, Rowan Spencer Wyatt.

Having dedicated himself to helping others, Kyam joined the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey as an Emergency Medical Technician in 2005. After years of dedicated service as an EMT, Kyam decided to pursue a lifelong dream of becoming a firefighter. In 2011, he fulfilled this dream by becoming a Newark Firefighter. He became a proud brother of Firehouse Engine 15, Ladder 7 in Newark, New Jersey in January of 2014.

Kyam was a wonderful free-spirit. He was compassionate, artistic, intelligent, funny and an all around perfect human being. He will be dearly missed by all who were blessed to meet and know him.

Kyam Wyatt is survived by the many people who loved him: his mother, Carole Hobbs; his father, Raymond Wyatt; his son, Rowan Spencer Wyatt; his brother, Demiel Wyatt; his fiancée, Dr. Selwena Brewster, as well as two great aunts and numerous relatives and close friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
