Reflections of Life

Rochelle Pittman was born on January 6, 1963 in Washington D.C. to the late Richard Pittman Sr. She grew up in Paterson, NJ and was the second oldest of her siblings. She attended grade school in Passaic and Passaic High School in her younger years.

Rochelle made a living as a school bus aide and a caregiver. She was better known as "Chelle" to everyone. She was a sweet and giving woman. She was known for taking care of her family. She stayed close to home and loved spending time her family and friends. She also enjoyed cooking and decorating. She became a devoted and dedicated mother to six children and a grandmother to seven grandchildren.

Rochelle Pittman leaves to cherish her memories; her four daughters, Monica Pittman, Monique Pittman, Shantay Pittman and Rodeshia Pittman and one son, Rahshun Lewis; one grandson, Najee Pittman; six granddaughters, Nasia Wilson, Nakayla Wilson, Brianna Lewis, Kimberly Lewis, Ayonna Brown and Mo'net Parker; four sisters, Anita Pittman, Shaneka Smith, Belinda Pittman and Rachel Pittman, and four brothers, Richard Pittman Jr., Ricky Pittman, Rahkey McGuire and Khalif Chain; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends to be with her beloved son, Kamar and father, Richard Pittman Sr.

A Sons Truth From The Heart!

Mom you were always strong on me giving my life to God.

But even more so demanding about me finding a job,

Some of my faults was that,

I always did the opposite of what you said.

Now, I know that my downfall began when, I went astray.

Your wise teaching was always there,

With open arms to show how much you care.

I've constantly failed myself, but more so you.

Cause it was you who installed in me the knowledge of how to be pure and true.

I, chose a path of failure behind drugs and crime,

When, I knew right from wrong cause your teaching stayed constantly on my mind.

I'm far from perfect, but in acceptance of the truth.

That, I'd never be in this predicament if, I'd listen to you.

I, can't change what's already happened, only what's to come.

So I'll use this valuable time as a bonding experience for us to reunite as one!

Happy Mother's Day (Mom)

Kamar M. Pittman

October 16th will always be remembered with joy and great sorrow. I couldn't believe my big sister was gone this has to be wrong.

Remembering growing up together, we were always close and had a lot in common. You were always there for me in so many ways, ways you may not even know.

As siblings we've had our differences but that would never last, we would make up and be right back talking and laughing like nothing ever happened. I really miss that talking, laughing and cursing me out. You'll always be my petunia my slig and one day we'll be back together talking and laughing again. I miss you so much.

Love Your Baby Sister,

Our Mother

You were always more than a mother to us. We could come to you and talk to you about anything at anytime. You were always there to listen even when we weren't listening to you. You had enough love and patience to make us all feel special. We know it wasn't easy for you trying to take care of us. We didn't have a lot of things growing up and we struggled sometimes but you never gave up. We appreciate how much you sacrifice for us and how much you helped with our children. You raised us to help each other and stick together. Now that we have our own children we are going to raise them the same way. There are so many things we are going to miss about you. Life will never be the same without you. Hope your in a better place and finally at Peace

Love forever your children
