Obituary

Anna Mae Ebron (nee French) was born on August 23, 1939 to the late Cleveland Reeves and Marion French and departed this life on November 3, 2015.

Anna attended Newark Public Schools and later she attended Essex County College and Seton Hall University.

Anna married the late John (Jamii) F. Ebron in Newark, New Jersey.

For many years, Anna worked for the State of New York, Staten Island Department of Disabilities as a Supervisor until her retirement.

Anna was the middle child and now joins her husband Jamii, her sisters Dolores Reese, Jean Wimberley and brother Henry French. She will surely be missed by her brother Cleveland and sister-in-law Shirley who have been by her side until the end.

Anna was very passionate about her family and leaves loving memories for her children the late Ar-Raheem Akbar, Jamii Ouwsu Jr., Patricia (Marc), John (Loreau), and Leah (Toussaint) and the late Collette Francine. She was extremely close with family especially her nieces and her nephews.

She avidly adored her grandchildren – Ibn Ar-Raheem, Tiffiany, Laura, Albert, Deanna, Latoyah, Shante, Steven, Tremauri, and Shevora. She was especially proud to talk about all 29 of her great-grandchildren, 3 great-great grandchildren and being called GGMA.

Anna will be remember as “THE” family historian, the great baker of the family and for her gift of foresight.

As the matriarch of the family, Anna was affectionately thought of as a “Senior Teenager” and loved to dance, go to the casino and spend time with her beloved family at many of functions, parties and events. No matter what the event was whether it’s a graduation, baby shower, birthday party, or wedding, she was always present with her signature smile.

Additional family members equally worthy of note includes her nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews and great, great nieces and nephew and her God sisters along with a host of in-laws, cousins and wonderful friends.

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
