Obituary

Patrick Devon Muthra was born August 26, 1968 to Chamberlain and Vinora Muthra (both deceased) in Westmoreland, Jamaica. He was the second youngest of six children. He spent his childhood in the neighborhood of Burnt-savanna and graduated from Venture High School.

Patrick always showed a keen interest in the field of electronics. His brothers and sisters all have their own memories of him constantly taking apart his Dad's transistor radio and trying to put it back together before their Dad came home. He wasn't always successful, which meant quiet time for everyone! At the age of 21, he moved to the United States where he began his career as an electrician. During his 20 plus years as an electrician, Patrick held supervisory positions for D&E Electrical and TC Electric. He was an industrious worker who earned the respect and loyalty of his colleagues. He more than loved his work, it was his passion.

In addition to being a hard worker, Patrick could easily be described as a man with the golden heart. He was known in his community as a compassionate neighbor who always gave his time and resources to those in need. He would always say "Whatever you do for yourself, do the same for others". He truly lived his life by this motto.

Patrick was a spiritually disciplined individual who respected the laws of nature. He centered himself into a peaceful lifestyle of healthy eating and frequently shared this wisdom. This included his love of curry goat, specifically ram goat. He jokingly remarked that we should bury him with a ram goat.

Cool, calm, and collected are a few words that described his demeanor. As his daughter, I inherited the love and respect from everyone he impacted. We have all been blessed to experience his loving spirit.

Patrick Devon Muthra passed away on the morning of October 28th, 2015 at the age of 47. He is survived by his wife Norma, daughter Patricia, three sons, Anthony, Patrick Jr., and Paul; as well as his sisters Iona and Grace, brothers, Byron, Michael and Anthony, mother-in-law, sisters-in-law, many nieces and nephews, cousins, uncles, aunts and friends.

I love you daddy, rest in peace.

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play
And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now... He set me free.
