Reflections of Life

Mamie R. Meares was born November 13, 1941 in Elizabethtown, North Carolina to Mamie Wilds and Rudolph Campbell, and resided in Paterson, NJ most of her life.

She attended Booker T. Washington High School in Clarkton, North Carolina.

Mamie was a very caring person, always helping others. She was employed as a Home Health Aide, taking care of others in their time of need. She was a great mother, grandmother, and a great grandmother.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Meares; her parents; a brother, Clarence Campbell; and a grandson, Wyatt Wilds

Mamie went to live with Jesus on October 21, 2015.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, her only child, Paulette Wilds; 3 great grandchildren, Wydier Adamson, Ymani Wilds, and Quadisha Adamson; two sisters, Geraldine Smith of New York, and Maybelle Simpkins of North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, who loved her dearly, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
