Gladys Johnson Lovett (Scottie) departed this life to be with the Lord on Sunday, November 1, 2015, at Trinitas Hospital in Elizabeth, NJ, with her son and daughter-in-law by her side. Gladys was born the second of four children on October 16, 1939, to James and Marion Johnson. Gladys grew up in Mount Vernon, NY, in a family of 3 siblings – 2 sisters and 1 brother. Gladys attended Elementary, Jr. High and Edison High School in Mount Vernon.

After graduating high school, Gladys attended Virginia Union University, in Richmond, VA. There she studied Early Childhood Education and received her Bachelor's Degree in 1962. While attending college, she met her future husband Carlton Charles Lovett. After graduating, the two married in 1962 and settled in Jersey City, NJ and one year later, they had a son, Carlton Charles Lovett II.

In September of 1962, Gladys secured a teaching position at P.S. 16 School in Jersey City, NJ. One year later Gladys transferred to P.S. 37 School in Jersey City. Gladys remained committed to her students and taught 1st grade for 38 years, until her retirement in 2000.

In the early 1980's, Gladys returned to school where she received her Master's Degree in Primary Education from Kean College, Union, NJ. Gladys had a zest for life; she traveled the world and enjoyed her family and friends immensely. Gladys loved the Lord and attended church services regularly. One of her favorite songs was "Oh Happy Day".

Submitted in God's Love,
The Family

Precious Memories

*A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we love is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts which never can be filled.
But always beautiful memories of one we love so dear.*
