Obituary

Henry Jeter peacefully entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, November 10, 2015 after an extended illness, with his family at his bedside. Henry was the second oldest of fourteen children to the late Alexander Jeter and Rebecca Lane Jeter in Union County, South Carolina on April 26, 1926.

At an early age, Henry accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and joined Coldwell A.M.E. Church in Union, South Carolina. Henry met the love of his life, Catherine Gee and they married on December 24, 1949. To this union, one daughter; Shirley Ann; was born. Henry and Cat left South Carolina for a better life and moved to Englewood, New Jersey and later to Teaneck, New Jersey.

Henry was employed by Ford Motor Company in Mahwah for many years and retired. He also was a bus driver for First Student Bus Company (formally Bergen-Passaic Transit) for many years. He drove for almost 40 years, safely transporting children to and from school and loved doing it. He worked until his illness. Henry and Cat loved to travel and was always on the go and went everywhere together. He was a longtime member of Ebenezer Masonic Lodge No. 4, A.F. & A. M. in Englewood. One his favorite hobbies was watching baseball which he played when he was younger.

Henry leaves to mourn: his devoted wife of 65 years, Catherine Jeter; one daughter, Shirley Hawthorne (Lawrence); one granddaughter, Alisa Strong (Derek); one great granddaughter, Jennah Strong; five brothers, Reverend Edward (Betty Jane), Coley (Geneva), both of Whitmire, South Carolina, James (Jaqueline), David (Patricia), both of Union, South Carolina and Marion (Debra) of Greenville, South Carolina; and one sister, Annie Bell Gray of Newberry, South Carolina; two brothers-in-law, Gilbert Thompson and Edward Gee; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
