Obituary

John Anthony Henegan was born to John and Viola Henegan, November 18, 1939 in Harlem Hospital, New York.

He attended Our Lady of Lourdes Elementary School and graduated from Bishop Dubois High School in 1958. At the age of nineteen, John went to work at General Motors. He also worked for the Post Office for a short time in his earlier years. During his employment at General Motors he attended Baruch College at night while still finding time to devote to his three sons and later to his grandchildren. He also received a degree in Real Estate and Accounting. He retired from General Motors after thirty-one years of service and returned as a private contractor.

John was a member of St. Charles Borromeo Church for over eighteen years and attended Mass every Sunday.

John married the love of his life, Sylvia and were blessed with three sons, John, Terance and Kenneth. John loved to travel, go to the theater, entertain in his backyard and above all he adored his grandchildren.

John went home to be with his beloved sons, John, Terance and Kenneth, his two sisters and a brother on November 5, 2015. He leaves to mourn: his beloved wife, Sylvia of fifty-five years; eight grandchildren, Christine, Michael, Danielle, Shavon and Terance, Branden, Latisha and Raven; one great grandson, Zikein; daughters-in-law, Dorcas and Sonya; nieces, Sharetta, Florence, Gina; nephews, Daryl and Wayne; cousins, Richard and family, Carol and Loretta; sister-in-law, LaShawn Russell; as well as a host of family and friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
