Obituary

Helen E. Nottingham was born in Camden, SC on December 12, 1924 to the late Reba Jackson Brown and Henry Jackson. She moved to Englewood, NJ as a young child and attended Dwight Morrow High School. She was united in holy matrimony in 1943 to the late John H. Nottingham and God bless their union with three children. She is lovingly survived by her children, Gail Green of Cherry Hill, NJ, John Nottingham of Englewood, NJ and Joan Nottingham of Hackensack, NJ.

After the death of her husband in 1956, Helen did domestic work to take care of herself and children. In addition too she worked part time at John Fredricks beauty salon, Englewood Hospital as a dietary aide and did factory work. She retired in 1986 from doing domestic work for the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Byrd.

At an early age Helen accepted Christ as her Savior and joined First Baptist Church in Englewood, NJ which was located on William Street under the pastorate of Reverend Isiah J. Goodman. Shortly after the church relocated to Englewood Ave. in Englewood, NJ Helen joined the usher board. Helen loved to usher and travel with the church. Even on days when arthritis was affecting her legs if the church called upon her to usher Helen was there faithfully. Helen also liked to take early daily walks through MacKay Park to Palisade Ave. and get back home in time to watch her soap operas.

Helen (known as Gamby) leaves to cherish her memories: 9 grandchildren, Giovanna Green Williams of Cherry Hill, NJ, Kelly Chance of San Diego CA, Barry Green of Cherry Hill, NJ, John Kane of San Diego, CA, Travis Green of Jacksonville, FL, Naomi Nottingham of New York, Fatima Nottingham of Mass, Wesley Nottingham of Clifton, NJ and Michael Nottingham of Hackensack, NJ; 10 great-grandchildren, Tara Williams of Hamilton, NJ, LaAsia Bryant of North Brunswick, NJ, Joshua Chance (air force) station in Qatar, Janae Keys of Hackensack, NJ, Ty Williams of Cherry Hill, NJ, Chloe Brown of Philadelphia, PA, Tevin Williams of Hamilton, NJ, Isiah Green of Jacksonville, FL, Nyasia Green of Jacksonville, FL and John D. Kane of San Diego, CA.; two surviving nieces, Juanita Thomas and Lorraine McNeil of St. Stephens, SC; a cousin, Luella Thompson of Englewood, NJ; Ex son-in-law, Theodore M. Green of Dayton, NJ; and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
