Faith Lavel BB Johnson aged 55 days, died under her parents watch at NYU Medical Center in Manhattan, New York on November 16, 2015. After struggling with a rare heart condition, "Trisomy 18", which was inoperable. She fought the battle hard, but she passed gently into the arms of Jesus.

Faith Lavel was the proud daughter of Larry Johnson and Chrissy Hairston of the Bronx, NY. She was the answer to their prayers, the beat to their heart.

During her brief time on earth, she spent it listening to her mom and dad's voices, along with mommy singing short baby tunes. She slept in her own clothing and blankets. She even had a Halloween custom, which she was a "pony". She was loved by all who met her and whom haven't.

Faith Lavel BB Johnson will be truly missed....

She was deeply loved by her mommy and daddy; big brothers, Larry Johnson, Jr. and Muhammad Matthews; sister, Lailah Johnson; her grandparents, Carmella Hairston, Thomas Junior and BB; great grandmas, Fannie Taylor and Thelma Johnson, her aunts, Dante, Kimberly, Dezmona, Shadea and Lexus; uncles, Earl, Javon, Jason, Chris, Charles, Thomas, Todd, Tyler and Genero; and a host of great aunts, great uncles, cousins and many others. Lavel will always remain her parents' precious baby girl and her siblings little sister, and they will hold her again in heaven one day.
