Obituary

Veronica M. Wright

Ms. Veronica M. Wright, daughter of the late Henry Wright and Adelle L. Haigler, was born in Bowman, South Carolina and entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, November 18, 2015 at the Brookdale University Hospital of Brooklyn, New York after a brief illness.

Veronica was a seeker of the truth and a firm believer in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. During her formative years, she became converted and joined First Baptist Church where she sang on the choir and gave unselfishly of her time and talent to the cause of Christ. She graduated from St. James Grammer & Roberts High School in Holly Hill, South Carolina. She migrated to New York City where she attended Hunter College and then was employed by Chase Bank.

Veronica joined the Nazareth Baptist Church, Inc. over forty years ago under the leadership of the Late Reverend Jethro Wright, Sr. Here she served in different capacities and was always willing to serve in Missionary work. She became part of the NBC Choir where she loved to sing. Her favorite songs were Ave Maria and Amazing Grace.

Veronica was preceded in death by both parents Henry Wright and Adelle Haigler Wright. She leaves to cherish her memory: two brothers – Robert H. Wright and Samuel L. Wright, one sister – Carolyn M. Wright, a sister-in-law – Jennifer M. Wright, three nephews – Tyrone Wright, Rodney Wright and Robert H. Wright, Jr, one nephew-in-law – Joshua Walker, two nieces – Jadyne and Brielle, one aunt – Alqueen Wright Myers and a host of cousins, family, friends and the Nazareth Baptist Church family.

Memories of My Sister

We miss you, oh! Sister
And now that you have left us
Part of our lives are gone from us.
We almost don't want to stop crying.
It seems a betrayal of the years we knew together.
But you knew better, didn't you?
We cherish the life that waits for us;
Because we know you will not be with us on earth anymore.
And since you are gone,
we just have to bear the memories of you, dear Sister.
Life without you, Sister, will never be the same.
Starting perhaps yesterday
Even today, Sister!
Remember, we love you but God loves you best.
