Reflections of Life

Marcia Elaine Campbell was born on November 27, 1972 in London, England, to parents Ashley and Icyline Campbell. She was a longtime resident of Paterson, NJ, before relocating to Allentown, PA until being called home on November 11, 2015.

Marcia attended School #20 in Paterson, NJ, as well as Passaic County Technical & Vocational High School in Wayne, NJ. She went on to earn a certification in medical coding and billing, and would later serve professionally at AT&T and Verizon.

Throughout her lifetime, she had a passion for games and fun, whether it was on her computer or with her family.

However, her first passion was always being a loving and warm mother, and spending time at home with her family. Her warm smile and energy permeated any room she entered, and she was always a source of laughter that would lighten up her environment. Her selfless compassion for others was evident in her generous nature, as well as her desire to see others joyous, even at times when she desired a source of laughter herself.

She leaves to cherish warm memories: Her parents, Ashley and Icyline Campbell; Lifelong companion, Michael Bethea; Her son, Devon Shearin, and her daughters, Nicia'le, Jasmine, and Selena Bethea; Her sisters, Maxine Sinclair and Karen Henderson; Her brothers, Delroy Campbell, Michael Campbell, and Desmond Campbell; And a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, in-laws, and friends.

Marcia carried such an amazing presence that touched the lives and minds of all whom she encountered. She will be missed greatly by all.

Psalms 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
