Obituary

Marcia Sears, known affectionately by friends as “Mello”, was born on October 29, 1955, in New York to the late Julia and James Sears. She was the youngest of five children, Margo, Gregory, Judy and Janet.

Marcia was educated at Jane Adams High School in the Bronx and later took health certification courses which led her to be employed in the health field, in which she loved. She retired from the Rockland Psychiatric Center.

Marcia had a love for fishing which she learned from her father. She also was a big fan of boxing, karate, and watching movies. Marcia loved collecting elephants and always requested souvenirs from the family’s travels.

Marcia departed this life on Saturday, November 21, 2015, and is survived by: her sisters, Margo Sears, Judy Thomas (Henry), Janet Davis (Aurther); brother, Gregory Sears (Debbie); cousins, Renee Oliver, whom she cared for until her death and Rev. Donald Oliver (Marionette); nieces and nephews, Deneen, Derek “Chuck” (Carla), Shawnee, Gregory, Jr., Dawn, Jamel, Natasha (Brian), favorite nephew, Nigel, Noelle, Joy (David), Amber and Sasha; great nieces and nephews, Danielle, Tajhjae, Zikayy, Darnell, Jabaria, Dominique, Amonte, Yasir, Solomon, Daniel, Samuel and Dylan; god-son, Dana Narvaze; special friends, Eddie, Val, Dina, Yolanda, Diane and Leo; and a host of other family members, (the Franklins, Renee Sears, Williams and Hoyt) and friends, (Carswell and Rosario).

Marcia is preceded in death by her parents, Julia and James Sears, nephew, Darnel (Man) Sears.

The Chain Will Link Again

*Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*
