Tribute To Our Brother

BROTHER

Today is full of memories of a Brother laid to rest and every single one of them is filled with happiness
For you were someone special always such a joy to know and there was so much pain
when it was time to let you go That's why this special message is sent to heaven above
for the angels to take care of you and given you all my love.

The Obituary

Maurice Wynell Butler was born on March 23, 1967 to Mr. Jack Leon and the late Cassandra Lavern Butler in Brooklyn, New York. He transitioned into eternal rest on Monday, November 23, 2015 at Bronx Lebanon Hospital, Bronx, New York, after an extended illness.

Maurice Butler was educated in the New York City Public School System.

He accepted the Lord as his Savior at an early age at Holy House of Prayer, Brooklyn, New York.

He had a very playful spirit and if you gained his friendship you had a friend for a lifetime. Maurice had a loving, kind and generous heart. Maurice would always welcome you in his home and if you were hungry, you would be fed. He would give you the shirt off his back. His hearty laugh and gift of exaltation will be remembered.

Maurice has gone on to be with his mother, Cassandra Butler and son, Kajuan Wynell Butler.

Those who remain to cherish and treasure his precious memories: his father, Jack Leon Butler; son, Maurice Butler Jr.; two brothers, Anthony Butler (sister-in-law, Sharmaine) Tarik Butler (sister-in-law Shawana); sister, Tasha Butler-Scott; (brother-in-law Wayne); special aunt, Lolita White and special cousins, Michael Pittman and Marvette Lewis; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

My Journey Into Heaven

And in those final moments,
with my body racked with pain.
I prayed that death would take me.
And yet fearful just the same.

And then, as though in answer.
The room was filled with light.
All fear and doubt had left me.
I knew everything would be alright.

For in those final moments
God had whispered in my ear:
“You are merely coming home, my child.
And there is nothing you need fear!”
