Obituary

Vladimir Dautruche was born on January 18, 1967, he was the fourth child to Nicole Dautruche and Bernard Dautruche. Vladimir entered into the joy of eternal life with the Lord on Thursday, November 26, 2015. He was born in Haiti, Port-au-Prince, he migrated to the United States in the late 80's where he dwelled in Montclair, NJ for many, many years.

Vladimir Dautruche was a graduate of Montclair High School in the year of 1985. While in high school, he took up auto mechanic skills, which became his expertise. He took great joy in showing off his skillfulness by virtue of possessing his special knowledge of car repairs.

All though Vladimir was not a sports fan on occasions, he would watch a football game with his best friend, Moses Singletary who he called Mo. He hung out with Mo quite often, for he enjoyed this man of great wisdom and Vladimir enjoyed their conversation.

Vladimir worked for Immaculate Conception Cemetery in Montclair, NJ for the past twenty-five years. He was a hard, prompt and dependable worker. He was dedicated to his job and its duties showing great respect to his boss, Bob Burns for the entire twenty-five years. Even when the day was uneasy he was able to withstand under pressure with a smile or a joke.

Biologically Vladimir Dautruche had no children, but was a father figure to Tonya McCoy, Nikki McCoy, Tinia McCoy and Charles Bergman and their six children regarded him as Pop Pop.

Vladimir adored his nieces and nephew, Vaugh, Nataya, Vanessa and Nadia Dautruche. He also had special heart felt love for Cynthia Bergman's two five year old grands, Ja'leah and Ja'sai they had his heart wide open. He told them I'm going to buy you both a car when you graduate high school stay in school and get educated for Pop Pop.

Vladimir will be remembered for his great smile, his bluntness, his heart to heart talks especially about his history and politics. Everyone that knew him experienced his sincere compassion and concern for others.

Although he wasn't a member of Bible Missionary Baptist Church, Vladimir was a regular visitor. He knew and read the bible continually and accepted the Lord Jesus as his personal Savior and adopted Rev. Tyrone Singletary as his pastor.

Twenty-three years ago, Vladimir Dautruche met the love of his life Cynthia Bergman the two remained close joined together at the hip like Siamese twins, when you saw one you saw the other. It was only when he was summoned to the Lord Jesus Christ that the two were finally separated.

Vladimir always did whatever he could for his mom until his sickness took over him. He loved his mother, Nicole Dautruche and his father, Bernard Dautruche and all of his sisters and brothers very, very much.

The memory of Vladimir Dautruche will continue to live on through the lives of his mother, Nicole Dautruche; father, Bernard Dautruche; two sisters, Nicole and Fabiola Dautruche; three brothers, Von, Myke and Jack Dautruche; two sisters-in-law, Zee and Elienne Dautruche; five half brothers and sisters, Elisa, Beatrice, Richard, Phillip and Stuart; a special friend which in Vladimir's heart Cynthia Bergman was his soul mate and his last few years she kept his dream alive. The memory of Vladimir will continuously be felt and lived through the lives of his aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, friends and his best friend, Lude as well as Cynthia's two brothers, and five sisters who grew to love him very much.
