Reflections of Life

Lillie Ruth (Murchison) Marshall was born on April 12, 1935 to the late Willie Murchison and Rebecca (Williams) Murchison in Bethune, South Carolina. She moved North to Paterson, NJ in the 1960's with her family and later relocated to Passaic, NJ in 1965.

Lillie was employed for the Passaic Board of Education and retired after twenty-five years of service.

She was married to Lloyd Marshall, who was a Korean War Veteran. As the wife of a Korean War Veteran, she had served as a member of the Disabled Veterans Association Auxiliary for many years.

Lillie was a member of Roger Williams Baptist Church for over thirty years where she served faithfully on the Missionary Board, the choir as well as the kitchen committee.

She enjoyed spending time with her family, cooking, sewing, watching game shows and was a huge Giants fan.

Lillie was predeceased by her husband, Lloyd Marshall and two sons, Theodore and Thomas Murchison.

Lillie departed this life on Wednesday, December 2, 2015.

Lillie leaves to cherish her memories: her three daughters, Janie Rivera, Terry West and Elaine Marshall; her sons-in-law, Jose Rivera and Earl West; her eight grandchildren, six great grandchildren and one great-great grandson; and a host of sisters and brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
