A Life Well-Lived

Mireille Lambert also known as “La Miral” was born on August 7, 1953 in Port-au-Prince, Haiti to Innocent Lambert and Alfred Doullon. She was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, November 29, 2015.

Mireille attended Republic Argentina School in Haiti. After graduating, she attended The University Cour Classic Sans D’etude. At the age of twenty-two, Mireille migrated to Florida pregnant with her second child with her friend, Nicole Joseph. She was a precocious child with a lot of ambitions and aspirations in life.

Mireille moved to New York in 1976 and began working at Barbizon Plaza Hotel as a Housekeeper. She later changed her career path and started working at The Puerto Rican Agency, where she became a Home Health Aide. While working as a Home Health Aide, she was able to encourage her family and friends to get into the healthcare field. Mireille enjoyed cooking, gardening, traveling, helping people and enjoyed finding a good bargain. Her children remembered her as a feisty, kind, gentle, patient and driven mother who encouraged them to pursue their goals.

Mireille was accomplished at donating clothes, shoes, food to those who were less fortunate in Haiti. She was a generous, witty, dedicated individual who loved life and who was passionate about what she was good at and what she believed in.

On July 30, 1992, Mireille married the love of her life, Martino Souffrant, she became Mrs. Mireille Lambert-Souffrant. Mireille and Martino enjoyed traveling to Haiti every year.

Mireille Lambert-Souffrant leaves to mourn: her husband, Mr. Martino Souffrant; four children, Myrtha Lambert, Ingrid Calhoun (husband, Duane Calhoun), Rashida Leconte and Rachelle Leconte; thirteen grandchildren, Franco, Dewayne, Kyirra, Anthony, Emari, Ja’Voni, Elijah, Rickhenley, Kylie, Darryl, Shanta, Amy and Duane; one great grandchild, Zsyla whom she loved dearly; her four sisters and three brothers, Yvonne, Yvon, Jacqueline, Elie, Elise, Daniel and Brunette; and a host of nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,*

I found that peace at the close of day.

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
