Obituary

Keith Nesbitt was born on January 25, 1956 to Carl and Hazel Nesbitt, in Queens, New York.

My brother, my twin, was my best friend. He was very meticulous at whatever he undertook while working at the Apollo Theatre. He was coined the nickname, "Fruitman" because of his love for fruit.

This will be a very difficult moment in my life, continuing on without my other half around. So if you ever see me looking down or somber...odds are I'm just missing my twin, who has been my best friend throughout life.

Keith is preceded in death by his father and brother, Donald.

He leaves behind: a daughter, Jasmine Smith; his mother, Hazel Nesbitt; and brothers, Zachary and Kevin Nesbitt.

J'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
