Angelina Hunter was born November 30, 1930 to the late Lester and Mary Malone. Angie as she was affectionately known was born and raised in Newark, New Jersey. Angie attended Cleveland Elementary School and graduated from South Side High School.

In October 1949 she met and married her first love the late Ernest Hunter. From this union they had three children, Ernestine (Tina) McKoy, Jeffery Hunter, who preceded her in death, and Darolyn Davis.

Angie worked for Remco industry for 10 years. She then became a home maker, and began to travel. She visited countries such as Japan, Switzerland and Australia, and went on many cruises, but her favorite place was Las Vegas. Angie was a fun loving and compassionate person she left a lasting impression on all those she met.

Angie was involved with many organizations, but she had a passion for children and became a foster parent to many children, who never wanted to leave her.

Angie joined Promised Land Baptist in 1991, where she was a faithful member, and participated in all programs, and truly loved her pastor.

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say,
"Welcome Home."
