Obituary

Betty Anne born on September 28, 1941, was the 3rd child of six born to Milton Clarence and Anne Elizabeth Evans. She attended both Saint Mary's Catholic Elementary and South Side High Schools in Newark. She later acquired her GED and exceptional secretarial abilities at Newark Manpower Training Skills Center. After thirty-five years of employment as a receptionist /secretary she retired from L. J. Gonzer Associates of Newark.

Betty was a talented seamstress. She enjoyed creating and sewing outfits for her family and friends. She took great pride in creating designs for everyday as well as special occasions. She was known for sharing knowledge of the sewing machine.

She was definitely computer and tech savvy which she got from her grandson. She wanted the newest phone, kindle and computer in order to play her games such as Farmville.

She loved her family most of all and her greatest joy was found in her children. She was affectionately known as Betty Boop. The youngest members of the family call her Grandma and Aunt Betty Boop.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Anne, and father, Milton, three brothers, Jimmy, Milton Jr. and Charles.

She leaves to mourn her devoted daughter, Rhea Adair Christmas; son, David Dijait Evans, (Gladys); sister, Ruth Johnson; brother, George Evans; grandsons, Darrell E. Christmas Jr. (Jennifer), Ryan A. Pettiford; great grandson, Darrell E. Christmas III, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Jesus Promised Me A Home Over There

*There's a place in heaven prepared for me
When the toils of this life are over
Where the saints are clothed in white
Before the throne singing praises forever more*

*In my Father's house there are mansions bright
If He said it, then I know it's true
There's a place for me beyond the sky
Brothers and sisters there is one for you*

*Jesus promised me a home over there
He promised me a home over there
No more sickness, sorrow, pain or care
He promised, me a home over there.*

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for all acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy that was shown to them during this time of bereavement.
