Obituary

Verina Hamilton was born on December 30, 1933 in Mount Prospect St. Andrew, Jamaica. Verina attended All Age School where she spent her elementary years. She later learned sewing which she had a passion for.

In 1965, Verina, migrated to Nassau, Bahamas to provide a better life for her family. While there she worked as a child care provider. She still saw the need for a better living and in 1969 she came to the United States with the help of her good friend. There, she resided in Brooklyn, New York. Verina then moved to Montclair, New Jersey in the mid 70's to enjoy a more peaceful living and continued to work as a child care provider. She retired in 2005 but would always share memorable times with the children she cared for.

Verina loved helping her relatives, friends and enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. On October 7, 2007, Verina was predeceased by her eldest child, Jennifer Simmonds. She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Barrington Simmonds and Sonia Hall; son-in-law, Aston Hall; grandchildren, Judene, Sean, Ineil, Annastacia, Jayson, Amarick, Olayinka, Ejoma, Kira and Estasha; great granddaughter, Laila; her sisters, Deborah and Semaria; brother Josiah; nieces, nephews and many friends.

Verina will forever be in our hearts.
