Born in Harlem Hospital to Evelyn and James Harris she joined seven other brothers and sisters. June (as she is known) was a precocious child. Her parents eventually had six more children, bringing the total to thirteen.

When she finished high school, she obtained a position with a downtown jeweler. She was there for numerous years until she was injured.

June had many loves. One was her love of God. She also loved to dance. There was not a dance she could not do from salsa to any current dance. Her second was her family. She entertained four generations of (nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and their friends).

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
