Obituary

Alex Shaw, Jr. was born in Mayesville, South Carolina to Alex Shaw, Sr. and Victoria Shaw on September 23, 1943.

He left Mayesville, South Carolina and moved to New York around 1970, and worked for over fifty years as a butcher. Mr. Shaw had one of the best performance records in the entire company. His tremendous work ethic and kindness made people like him, and inspired others to be like him.

He was a loving, strong, and hardworking man who cared deeply for his family. His wisdom, love and joy will help guide his family for the rest of their lives. He will be in our hearts and we will always be with him and in our prayers. He will be missed.

Alex Shaw, Jr. is survived by: his beloved wife, Janice Wardlow Shaw; sons, Alex Shaw III and Reginald Shaw; his two other daughters, Denora and Betty; five grandchildren, Reginald Shaw Jr., Reagan Shaw, Anastasia Shaw, Sidney Shaw, and Morgan Shaw. He is also survived by a daughter-in-law, Anya Robinson Shaw; brothers, David Shaw, John Shaw, and Reynolds Shaw; and sisters, Gussie Boatwright, Ola Mae Young, and Careatha Shaw. He also leaves behind nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
