Obituary

Mrs. Marion Wade was born on October 1, 1951 in Alachua, Florida to the late John Henry and Endy Fairley.

She was educated in the Alachua County School system. Marion later moved to Newark, New Jersey where she met and married, Alfred Gram Wade on February 17, 1980. Marion worked as a Home Health Aide for over fifteen years. Having fought a good fight with lung cancer, Marion peacefully transitioned to eternal life on December 14, 2015.

Marion was a hard worker who loved and cared for her patients, community and family. With an infectious smile, Marion was very stern yet outgoing and outspoken.

Marion was preceded in death by Lenard Fairley, Linda Fairley, Belauh May Alston, Edward Fairley, Ann Marie Johnson and James Fairley.

She leaves to cherish her legacy: her husband, Alfred Wade of the home; her daughters, Sharon Jamison of North Carolina and Tammy Garrison of Newark, New Jersey; three grandchildren, Quanetta Jamison, Tanee' Garrison and David Jae Jamison; three great grandchildren, Jamarrion Jamison, Amira Haywood, Messiah Jamison; two sisters, Frances Greenhouse of Philadelphia, PA and Martha (Eddie) Parks of Tampa, FL; best friends, Lila Jackson and Margie Reed; and a host of close relatives and friends.

Don't

*Don't spend too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad; I left to be with Jesus
And this should make you glad. Don't waste your hours in grieving,
No need to feel distress; I'm tired of life's frustrations
And had to get some rest. Don't puzzle yourself with questions
Or try to reason why life here for me was ended, It came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you feed it with your care;
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way;
We'll have another meeting
In God's eternal day.*

Come To Me

God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to Be so He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered "Come to me".

*The days of toil and nights of pain the weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.*

*Day and night we stood by her and saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure but our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best eased her suffering, gave her rest. She is gone but not forgotten, never will our memories fade sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
