Life Reflections

Maggie Marie Singley was born on August 17, 1928 in Warrenton, North Carolina, the youngest of three children to the late Van Stamper and Emily Alston Stamper. She has lived in New Jersey for sixty years.

Maggie was a Leather Finisher at Berkley Leather Factory in Edgewater for 30 years. After retirement, she worked as a Packer at Space Leg Clothing Company in Rahway for 10 years. From 2000 to 2006, she was a Food Service Technician for Linden High School in Linden.

A member of White Rock Baptist Church since 1967, she sang in the Senior Choir.

Maggie enjoyed walking and could be seen throughout the neighborhood. She loved to take bus rides to Atlantic City so that she could walk up and down the Boardwalk.

On Thursday, December 24, 2015, she passed away peacefully at Father Hudson House in Elizabeth at age of 87.

She was predeceased by her husband, Forest Singley; daughter, Christine Stamper; brother, Haywood Stamper and sister, Julia Perry.

Surviving are her two sons: Eugene Mizell, Jr. and Prentiss R. Williams and his wife, Sarah; three grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; godson, Carl Allen; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, dear relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

I Needed The Quiet

*I needed the quiet so He drew me aside,
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.*

*I needed the quiet tho' at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld.
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho' weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly, He drew me away.*

*I needed the quiet. No prison, my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead -
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.*

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.
