Obituary

Christine Evon Ellis was gifted to this world on December 25, 1948 in Rahway, New Jersey. Christine was the second youngest of five siblings of the late Edith Kinch.

As a young lady, Christine lived and created her legacy in Rahway, New Jersey. She received her formal education from the Rahway School system. Christine married John Russell Ellis and out of this Union eleven children were born, seven boys and four girls: John Russell, Jr., Darryl John, Jemod George, Troy Dermont, Markeef Phillip, Gerald Leonard, Timothy Douglas, Deirdre Joy, Lynell Christine, Latesha Rashaun and Heather Alesha.

Christine was an advocate for her children, her community and anyone who needed her services. Christine was the owner of her own organization, Heartfelt Resources Inc., where she directed, helped and advocated services for those in need. It all started with the G.K.S. Tenants Association, Rahway Housing Tenant Patrol and continued on with her many awards from the NAACP, Rahway City Council, HUD and the State of New Jersey. Christine was a true pioneer for her community. Christine made her children but most of all, her grand children her LIFE. Christine was a loving, generous and caring woman and she will be dearly missed.

Christine leaves behind to cherish her loving memory: her eleven children mentioned above, thirty-three grandchildren, five siblings and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

A Limb Has Fallen From The Family Tree

*I keep hearing a voice that says,
"Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how truly I was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*
