I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me,
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my times seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Eunice Cornelius Clark was born on March 14, 1919 in Forsyth, Georgia to the late Bennie Benjamin, Sr. and Ethel White. Eunice attended the public school system in Atlanta, Georgia.

On September 29, 1937, she married Grady A. Clark and with this union one son, Richard L. Clark was born. The family moved to Roselle, New Jersey in December 1945.

She studied at the Charm School of Beauty Culture in Newark, New Jersey and graduated in June 1952. Family was very important to Eunice. She was especially fond of children; they gave her such great joy. She was so loved that the children from the neighborhood referred her as "Grandma."

Eunice accepted Jesus Christ at an early age. She was a faithful member of the Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church in Roselle where she served as President of the Women's Day Committee, a member of the Senior Choir, the Transportation Ministry, Kitchen Aide, and was a faithful supporter of other auxiliaries until her health began to decline.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that,
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly;
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

With love,
From your Children
