Obituary

John Ford once said that when confronted with having to write the story of a person's life and you have to choose between the truth and the legend - print the legend.

In my brother's case, the legend and the truth are one in the same. In life, he was many things to many people and he takes what he was in this life with him to the next. He was a father, a grandfather, a great grandfather, a son, a baby brother, a friend, and a colleague.

My little brother gone too soon is survived by: his mother, Doris Rowe; his daughter, Tanyatta Lynette Rowe; his grandchildren, Lashawn Rowe, Monique Rowe, Tkeyah Rowe, Uniqua Jones, and Malik Rowe; his great grandchildren, Tion Rowe, Taylar Rowe, Amour Anita Jones, Aniyah Terry, and Elena Maia Rowe; his brother, Robert Rowe; along with nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, friends and colleagues too numerous to count.

He will be sorely missed.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
