Eulogy

Ms. Beverley Hewitt also known as “Auntie Cherry” was a great woman. She was dearly loved by her three children Karl, Karlene and Damion and her three grandchildren, two great grandchildren, as well as her brother, sister, nieces, nephews and friends.

She was born to Esther Beel and David Hewitt on September 12, 1949 in Kingston, Jamaica. Hard work and determination characterized Cherry. Her first job was at Davon Garment Factory after which she became self-employed as a business woman.

In many families, grandparents are somewhat of an absent figure; there are pictures of them around the house; you might get a birthday card in the mail, or see them on holidays, but in my family Cherry was a part of our everyday life.

We had no doubt that Cherry loved us as much as humanly possible. No matter what else she was doing, she went out of her way to spend one-on-one time with each of us. She was always checking in on everyone and making sure everyone was ok. You could always expect a phone call from her asking you how your day was as well as telling you that she loved you.

Because of the caring and tender mother, sister, and grandmother that she was, Beverley Hewitt will be sorely missed. But greater than the sorrow from her death is the joy that she spread in her life. Just as she guided every one of us, her wisdom and love will continue to guide each of us throughout our lives.
