Obituary

Fannie Washington was born July 5, 1928 in Thomaston, Georgia. She was one of fourteen children born to the late Robert and Mittie Acey. Fannie was educated in Thomaston, Georgia. She later relocated to Newark, New Jersey. There she met and married James E. Washington, Sr. Five children were born to this union, James Jr., Shelly, Brenda, Darryl (Deceased) and Kelley.

Fannie was a member of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. She was employed as a seamstress and machine operator for Hysam Mfg Co. of Newark, NJ and Martys Mfg Co. of East Orange, NJ. She retired in 1997. After retiring, Fannie attended Casa Israel and Senior Care Adult Day Care Centers. There she continued to be the social person she was, always talking and laughing.

She is featured on Senior Cares website enjoying one of her favorite hobbies, crocheting. She also enjoyed doing word search puzzles and playing Bingo. Her two favorite TV shows were Jeopardy and Wheel of Fortune. Fannie also enjoyed the music of Brook Benton, Ray Charles, Sam Cook, Dinah Washington and Junior Walker and the All Stars. She was known to occasionally breakout into a dance called the Camelwalk.

Fannie became seriously ill in October 2015 and succumbed to this illness on January 5, 2016.

Fannie is survived by: her son, James Jr.; her daughters, Shelly, Brenda and Kelley and her grandson, Montrell. She also has two surviving siblings, Minnie Sweeper and Johnny Acey; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Fannie was the rallying point for her family and will be deeply missed by many.

God's Promise

*God didn't promise
Days without pain,
Laughter without sorrow
Or sun without rain.
But God did promise
Strength for the day,
Comfort for the tears
And a light for the way,
And for all who believe
In His Kingdom above,
He answers their faith
With everlasting love.*

See Yourself When All Is New

(Revelation 21:1-5)

1. Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly free.
No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.
The time will have come for a new earthly start,
The song of our praises will pour out from our heart:

(CHORUS)

“Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong.”

2. Now see yourself, and see me too;
And look ahead to a world that is new.
No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.
He now shall awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join us with ev'ry grateful breath:

(CHORUS)

“Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong.”
