Obituary

Elsie Louise McClamb was born on November 16, 1936 to Grafton and Elsie Dorsey. In her childhood Elsie was given a nickname by her family, and she was called "Peanut". Peanut was the second oldest of her brothers and sisters. The oldest child was Edna, then Peanut, Marie, Grafton, Jr. and youngest is Gregory Eugene.

Elsie grew up at 59 West 99th Street. She graduated from Julia Richmond High School. Shortly after graduation, Elsie and her cousin, Elsie Mae known as "Sissy" both became employed at Roosevelt Hospital. At the young age of seventeen, she met her husband the late Clark McClamb and they were married until the Lord called him home in 2010.

Elsie was a strong, committed and loving person. She always wore a smile and extended herself to anyone that had a need. Her God given ability to exhibit compassion with understanding to all that faced surmounting obstacles. The compassion she extended reached the depth of a person's heart. As a pillar in her community, Elsie's strength gave her the power to carry her family, the community, including neighbors and their children.

She loved family and friends, and laughing and talking outside on the block. Her enjoyment included knitting, cooking, playing cards especially Pokeno.

She is survived by: her son, Terrance; her daughter, Glynise; her grandchildren, Sheronica and Shavonne; the newest member to the family, her great grandson, Elijah; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Ms. Elsie will surely be missed by everyone. Yet she is at peace and rest in a better place with the Lord, Jesus Christ.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
