Obituary

Mr. Robert Nathaniel Hill, Jr., “Rob Love” as he was affectionately known, was born on May 4, 1961, to the late Doris Elizabeth Hill and the late Robert Nathaniel Hill, Sr. Robert was a loving husband, brother, father and a true and wonderful friend. He transitioned from this life on January 13, 2016, in New York City.

Robert attended the New York City public school system. After graduating high school, Robert went on to attend Morristown College with Honors, with an Associate degree in Arts on April 25, 1982. He later attended Howard University to continue his bachelor’s degree in Arts, but fell ill and could no longer continue with his degree.

For 28 years, Robert took real pride and great joy with his career at Con Edison, he was known to his Con Ed family as, “Con Ed or Bobby, ” he loved and respected his co-workers as well as embraced them as his second family. Robert's pastime was enjoying his family and sports. Robert was a huge sports fan of the Mets and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Robert met and married the love of his life, Catherine Strayhorn on July 27, 2002. Robert cherished and loved each moment of his life with his wife, their love was like none other. Robert was a strong family man, he believed in “Family First”. His children, Najee R. Hill, Cherniqua and Dinah Strayhorn were his pride and joy. Even though Cherniqua and Dinah were his stepdaughters, he loved them just the same.

Robert leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Catherine; two stepdaughters, Cherniqua and Dinah Strayhorn; his son, Najee R. Hill; one stepson, Xavier Grant; two sisters, Elnora Tomlin (husband, Thomas) and Patricia Hill (husband, Chica); brother, Arnold Hill (wife, Chereese); nieces, Chanel, Chyna, Cayci and Dezia; nephews, Mark, Troy, Brandon, Randy and Renee; Odetta Hill (ex-wife); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

*“The nicest feeling I’ve ever known is being in love with you”
To my loving husband, Robert... Thank you for these feelings.
“For bringing me happiness as though it were a gift I could open every day... I thank you. For listening to the words I want to say... I appreciate you. For letting me share the most personal parts of your world, and for welcoming me with your eyes... I am grateful to you. For being the wonderful, kind, giving person you are... I admire you. For being the most beautiful light in my life... I desire you. For being everything you are to me, and for doing it so beautifully... I love you.”
(B. Taylor)*

From your loving wife, Catherine.
