Obituary

Bernice Daggett Williams was born on October 1, 1924 in the Community Hospital, Montclair, NJ. She was the eldest of seven siblings born to the late Albert Daggett and the late Christine Daggett. Bernice was educated in the Montclair, NJ school system. After graduating high school, she worked at Westinghouse for forty-five years until retirement.

Bernice became a member of St. Marks Methodist Church of Montclair, NJ at a very early age and served every Sunday until her illness. Bernice was a member of a few clubs at the church, The Darnears and the Agape Club where she served faithfully. Bernice was an avid bowler and a member of a bowling league for over twenty years. Bernice was a very sharp dresser and loved her shoes and hats. She also was a very giving person and loved her family.

On April 21, 1973, Bernice married the late Randolph Williams. They were happily married for twenty-four years until the time of his death. Bernice quietly departed this life to be with the Lord on Saturday, January 16, 2016. Preceding her in death: two sisters, the late Mildred Daggett and Helen L. Jenkins, four brothers, the late Albert Daggett, Charles Daggett, Warren Daggett and Curtis Daggett, one nephew, Kent Taylor Jenkins.

Bernice is survived by: three nieces, Karen (Beaumont) Munford of Montclair, NJ, Christine (Caruso) Brown of Charlottesville, VA, and Yolanda Jenkins of West Orange, NJ; three nephews, Kevin (Josephine) Jenkins of Montclair, NJ, Keith (Yolanda M.) Jenkins of Henrico, VA and Chris Rice of NJ; her sister-in-law, Ruth James. She also leaves seven great nephews, six great nieces, four great, great nieces and six great, great nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
