Obituary

On Wednesday, January 20th, 2016 at 1:16 pm, Henrietta (Hank) Holloway was called home to glory and entered eternal rest. Henrietta Holloway was born on July 7th, 1949 in Raleigh, NC. She became a member of Trinity Temple Church of God in Christ in the early 2000's. She was an active member until her health declined.

Henrietta received her education through Newark Public Schools. She also attended Essex County College where she was valedictorian and received her Associate's Degree.

A hard worker, Henrietta held several positions at places such as Kennedy Drug Store, Tom's Chicken Shack and Munn Variety Shop where she worked as a cook. On November 4th, 1979, Henrietta began her career at the Social Security Administration until her retirement.

Henrietta enjoyed music, traveling, playing cards and working. She became a member of the Flamingo Drill Team of Orange, NJ in the late 1990's. She lived her life to the fullest while enjoying her independence and self-sufficiency until her death.

Henrietta will be remembered for her uniqueness as a child of God, a nurturer, protector, confidant and friend. She was many things to many people, but more than anything the job that she loved and cherished the most was being a mother.

Henrietta is predeceased by her mother, Florine Terrell; cousins, Carolyn and Cornelius Johnson and aunt, Dorothy Tyler.

Henrietta leaves to cherish her memories: son, Tresby; daughters, Cristal, Kashi and Shelley (Rashaan); grandsons, Kelsee, Alvenza, Zion and Dashawn; granddaughters, Janiece, Desiree, Alexis and Kyasia; great grandsons, Steven and Yaz'mir; great granddaughters, Ziyonna and Kayla; extended mother to Kameelah and Michelle and many others, as well as a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

A phenomenal woman.

*Mothers Never Really Die
They Just Keep House
Up In The Sky*

Death beckoned her with outstretched hand
And whispered softly of an unknown land,

But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know
She took death's hand without a fear
For God who safely brought her here
Had promised He would lead the way
Into eternity's bright day.

For none of us need go alone
Into the valley that is unknown,
But, guided by our Father's hand
We journey to the Promised Land
And there, with step so light and gay
She polishes the sun by day
And lights the stars that shine at night
And keeps the moonbeams silvery bright...

For mothers never really die
And in the heavenly home above
They wait welcome those they love
