Reflections of Life

Fred Brown, Jr. was born on April 30, 1957 in New York City to the late Fred and Annie Brown, Sr. He was raised in Harlem New York where he was educated in the New York City Public School system.

Fred transitioned from civilian life to Navy life with Company 74-927. He completed his training September 20, 1974 in Great Lakes, Illinois. While in the Navy, he met Lois and they later married in 1983. Fred had a good sense of humor with a kind heart. If you didn't want the truth, then you knew not to ask Fred Brown because that's exactly what you would get.

He attended Monroe College and received an Associate's Degree in Accounting and was on the Dean's list twice for outstanding academic performance. Fred worked as a Property Manager for the Department of Sanitation then later moved on to the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene.

Fred leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife; Lois, two sisters; Naomi Diane and Claudia, brothers; Willie James (Dorothy), Nathaniel (Helen), Louis (Pamela), Allen (Michele), Thomas (Elise), sisters-in-law; Joanne (Bill), Nicole (Anne) "baby girl" Josephine, nephews; Ronald, Chris, Kahlil and Ronnie, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

And, to you all I say, just stay in the hands of Jesus and we'll meet again someday.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
