

In Loving Memory of

Gail Robin Seabrook

May 6, 1956 - February 1, 2016

Obituary

Gail Robin Seabrook age 59, died at Waterview Hill Nursing Home in Purdys, New York, on Monday, February 1, 2016.

Born May 6, 1956 in Manhattan, NY to Lucy Boddie (Seabrook) and Clive Seabrook Sr.

Gail grew up in Harlem but also lived for many years in the Bronx before settling in Katonah, NY. Gail dedicated countless hours of her life to assisting on the rehabilitation of troubled youths as well as early childhood and development. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend.

Gail had an extensive art collection and was very passionate about tending to her garden. Her pride and joy besides her children was and will always be her eldest granddaughter Nyleese. Words cannot explain the love and devotion Gail had for her granddaughter.

Gail was a strong and vibrant woman. Her smile was beautiful, her laugh was contagious, and her personality was exciting. She took pride in whatever she did and would go above and beyond to help those in need. She said whatever was on her mind and didn't hold her tongue for anyone. Gail took on cancer exactly how she took on life, head on. She fought to the very end and when it was her time she left gracefully and peacefully. Gail will be deeply missed by all who loved her especially by her daughter who devoted her life to the care of her mother.

Gail is survived by her daughter, Sheniqua Gail Heard; her son, Douglas Michael Seabrook; as well as her mother, Lucy Boddie; her sisters, Karen Seabrook, Victoria Gary (Benjamin Gary), Trina Seabrook, Christal Seabrook, Tracey Seabrook, Christine Boddie; her brother, Lance Boddie (Chanette Chopin-Boddie); sisters-in-law, Judy Heard and Magda Seabrook; her grandchildren, Nyleese Seabrook, Rah'kel Callahan, Nasiir Callahan, Allure Seabrook, Douglas Seabrook Jr. and Akayla Seabrook. Gail also leaves nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and her two cats, Man-Man and No-No.

When daisies and sunflowers are no longer yellow
When the grass and cactuses are no longer green
When calla lilies and daffodils are no longer white
When tulips and lotus's are no longer pink
When marigolds and daylilies are no longer orange
When lavender isn't purple, hydrangeas aren't rose
When columbines aren't red and violets are no longer blue
That will be the day I stop loving you
Love you always Grandma
