Obituary

Antoinette Dolores Baskerville-Freeman was born on August 6, 1968 in Newark, New Jersey to Walter and Mildred Baskerville. Antoinette lovingly known by family and friends as “Annette, Nette or Daisy” departed life suddenly on January 31, 2016.

Antoinette was educated in the Newark School System and graduated from West Side High School. She continued her education at Concord Beauty School and then Essex County College where she majored in Early Childhood Development. She later returned to work at her alma mater West Side High School. At the time she received her wings she was employed for the NJ Turnpike.

Antoinette enjoyed inspiring, humoring and uplifting others with her famous quotes or by being a prayer warrior. Antoinette was known for making you laugh and cry all in the same conversation. She had a heart of gold and smile to match.

Antoinette preceded in death by her daughter, Daville.

Antoinette leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, NyShawnde Freeman of Newark, NJ; her two sons, Shakor and Kevin, Jr.; her two daughter, Nakia and Davyda; as well as none grandchildren; parents, Walter and Mildred Baskerville; four brothers, Walter, Jr., Latrand, Walden and Elijah; her two god-children, Azeem and Kevanna; her favorite aunt, Veronica; special sister/friend, Donna; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
