Reflections of Life

Lula Mae Ferguson was born September 26, 1926 in Dillon, South Carolina to the late Lucious Mack and Ella McLean, and resided in Newark, New Jersey most of her life.

She attended the local schools before relocating to New Jersey. For many years she was a self employed Domestic Engineer before her health began to fail.

Periodically, she attended the Pure Light Baptist Church of Newark with her very special niece, Mary Carr.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Alexander Ferguson, Sr.; her children, Alexander Jr., Kelvin, Garcia, Betty and Cathy; her siblings, John Herbert, Robert, J. B., Rosa and Aletha and grandchildren, Quadir and Hasan.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her sons, Donall Ferguson and Ronnie Ferguson; like a son, Merrick Little (Elizabeth, NJ); one sister, Margaret Ellis of Baltimore, MD; 18 grandchildren, Altimese (Melissa), Torey, Raheem, Haaliyah, Al-Mailk (Dee Dee), Anthony, Iesha, Bacari, Marquise, Tiffany, Fuquana, Quadir, Anthony, Khadijah (Alan), Crystal, Lashawna, Denard and Asia; a host of great grandchildren; brothers-in-law, Frank Ellis of Baltimore, MD, Leroy Ferguson and Joe Wright Ferguson of Red Springs, NC, Bishop Winston Fayetteville, NC and James Ferguson of Philadelphia, PA; sisters-in-law, Vanessa McLean of Baltimore, MD, Hattie Kells and Sallie McCormick, Cornelia and Peggy Ferguson all of Red Springs, NC, and Sadie Winston of Fayetteville, NC

A better place is where you went and though you're gone, you left your scent We'll think of you every day and look at your life as a guiding way. You were the best and no one can compare for if they do, my thoughts I'll share. You loved us more than life itself and this love you gave to everyone else. You had a heart worth more than gold, always warm and never cold. You were tired and needed your rest so you closed your eyes and prayed for the best. GOD called for you to come on home and though you went by yourself you weren't alone. You're memories I'll carry with me to the end, knowing in my heart I'll see you again. And now it's time to say goodbye, it's not forever so I'll try not to cry. I love you grandma and always will, and your love for me, I know was real. Hugs and kisses is how I'll send you away and hugs and kisses is how you'll greet me on our reunion day!!!

Love Always, Fuquana
