Obituary

Raymond Emanuel Boyd son the late David and Sally Boyd was born on October 25, 1930. One of eight children, Fairey, Clidest, David, Harriet, Jessie, Martha, Raymond and Leneater. Raymond was called home February 1, 2016

Raymond attend school in Bayonne, New Jersey. At a young age, he went to live with his oldest sister, Fairey Ransom and family in Harlem, New York on 127th Street. Working with his brother-in-law, Akin Ransom selling fish and vegetables all along 8th Avenue. Also he worked in a host of restaurants across 125th Street. The one he was most known for working at was Cozys.

Raymond was a very friendly and giving person to his family and to the people in his community. Being well known all across Harlem as a ladies man.

Raymond was a fast talker and stayed on the move. After retiring, he spent his days on 125th going to Salvation Deliverance Church to eat and hear the word of God.

Leaving to mourn: nieces, Sally Davis, Long Island City with a host of grandnieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

You will be always be in our hearts.

I've Changed My Address

*I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.*
