Obituary

Edward Hunt was 1 of 8 siblings born to Jesse Hunt and Louise (Sims) Hunt. He was born on January 7th, 1935 in Savannah, Georgia.

His mother Louise Hunt passed away when he was a baby shortly after his birth. Eddie stayed with his siblings and then moved on and went to live with his father Jesse Hunt in Far Rockaway, Queens, NY.

As he became older, Eddie went to Automotive High School in Brooklyn and graduated. Then he pursued a career as a mechanic. He was drafted in the Army and served 1 year and was honorably discharged. While he was in the army he was a well known winner in track and field. Eddie was a very hard working man Eddie worked for the New York City MTA as a Subway Supervisor until his retirement, and he also worked full time at North Shore Forest Hills Hospital, under engineering maintenance in the kitchen. A couple of years before the new millennium he graciously retired again and enjoyed fishing, playing chess, going to the gym working out and socializing with family and friends. Eddie Hunt, was a loving father, who was always known for his smile. He had a great sense humor and he endured a lot of hard work and commitment as a father. He was very strong and intelligent when he was dedicated to making a difference with people around him and his own life. He made sure you were ok and he always had a niche to fix any problem he could possibly fix.

He married his first wife Lucille (Williams) Hunt in 1952. They settled in Brooklyn and had 7 kids. Eddie Hunt Jr, Theresa (Hunt) Moore, David Charles Hunt, Jamar Anthony Hunt, Thomasina Lucille Hunt, Curtis Hunt, and Rebecca Ann Overton. When he separated from Lucille, he met and married his second wife a few years later Carolyn Hunt (1986) along with Latonya Matthews (Step Daughter) they would have a son named Tyrone Hunt a year after.

Eddie had the pleasure of reconnecting to his long lost step brothers, Steven Hunt, Linda (Sister in Law) and Waymond Hunt, Carolyn Hunt (Sister In Law) 3 years prior his transcending. They were related through his father, Jesse Hunt's second marriage.

Eddie Hunt is survived by, his wife Carolyn (Darby) Hunt, their son Tyrone Hunt, step daughter Latonya Matthews and her husband Charles Matthews. His first wife Lucille Hunt, and their children Eddie Hunt Jr, his wife Barbara Hunt(Daughter In Law), Theresa Moore, her husband Daryl Moore Sr. (Son In Law), David Charles Hunt, Jamar Anthony Hunt, Thomasina Lucille Hunt, His sister Catherine Torrence, Step Brothers Steven Hunt and Waymond Hunt along with a host of nieces and nephews, grand kids and many friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
