Obituary

Deborah June Green, affectionately known as “June” was born on June 9, 1958 in Port of Spain, Trinidad, BWI to Shirley Shelia Clarke and Desmond Prime, Deborah was the middle child of three children. She attended Calvary Roman Catholic School.

June came to the United States in 1971, where she began attending Winthrop Junior School and Tilden High School. After graduation June expressed interest in doing hair, so she enrolled and graduated from Wilfred Academy as a cosmetologist, and opened her own hair salon in Brooklyn, New York. She ran the salon for a few years and was suddenly hit with the travel bug and joined the United States Army in 1983. During her tour of duty she was stationed in Germany and Texas where she met her first husband, Patrick Pender. She traveled to various locations throughout the world enjoying life. Honorably discharged in 1987 she returned home to New York.

June had an adventurous spirit and wanted a change after being home for a while, her sister Patsy invited her to move to New Jersey where she met her soul mate William Roger Green, whom she then married in 2001 in the backyard of their home.

June was a fun loving yet no nonsense sibling, Aunt, friend, wife, step-mom and grandmother (Nana) until she was called home February 8, 2016. June is survived by her husband, William Roger Green, father, Desmond Prime, step-daughter, Tara Maples (Adam), grandchildren Adam Jr, Karyn and Akasha, sister Patsy Hargrove (Alex), brothers Marlon Clarke and Gary Clarke (Nyssa), niece Crescent, nephews Gary and Curtis, great-nephew Kayson, and a host of beloved family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
