Obituary

Andrew A. Jones, Sr. was born on February 25, 1932 in Suffolk, VA to Sotomon and Adele Jones. He departed this life on Saturday, February 13, 2016 in Englewood, NJ at the Ingelmoor Nursing Home.

Andrew attended the Suffolk, VA and Englewood, NJ school system and later graduated from Dwight Morrow High School in 1952.

In 1953, Andrew married Meta Roberts and from their union they have three children and in 1983, he married Grace Jackson Sanders, both who have preceded him in death.

"Andy" as he was known to his family and friends and "Bobby" as he was affectionately called as a nickname from a child.

Andy was part of The Quartet "The Rivieras." They shared musical notoriety from 1958 through 1962. They appeared on the "DICK CLARK SHOW" as well as "The Ed Sullivan Show".

While Andy was able, he was a staunch member of First AME Zion Church in Paterson, NJ, where he served on the Steward Board and sang vigorously with the Zionaires.

He never quenched the spirit of God, but he let Him have his way.

Andy loved the Lord and even up to the end of life used his words to make sure everyone around him was ok.
