Obituary

Austin Robertson was born September 21st, 1922 in Port Antonio, Portland Jamaica to parents Mariam Brown and Arnold Robertson. During his time Austin was a station master for the Jamaica Railway Corporation.

Upon arriving in New York, Austin transitioned into a new life in NYC working at Booth Memorial, as a nurses assistant. In his later years he became a real estate agent. He was a member of the Saint Albans Baptist church for over 20 years, where he also became the vice president of the missionary ministry in his early years.

Austin was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and brother. Today we celebrate his home coming to the Lord. He was a wonderful man, and he leaves to cherish his memory; his wife, son, brothers, sisters, grandchildren, other relatives, and friends. May God bless his soul.

Your Gentle Face And Patient Smile

Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall,
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart
That loved us well and true,
Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can take your vacant place.
