Reflections of Life

Omar Sharif Faines was born April 9, 1984 to the late Brenda Ann Faines and Lynwood Dennis Street.

Omar was educated through the Irvington School System. He obtain a love for basketball at a very young age, and with this talent he traveled to Florida competing in competitions. He also earned trophies and other awards. Omar also had a love for music and dance which he gratefully passed down to his son, (Al-Sharif). He later went on to further his education by obtaining his G.E.D. This achievement made him happy; just by being able to see his grandmother (Annie) smile and show his children something different through his accomplishments.

Omar leaves to cherish his memories: his grandmother, Annie Faines; two sons, Al-Sharif Baltimore and Omar Sharif Tyher Faines; two brothers, Melvin Faines and Lynwood Street; three sisters; and a host of aunts, uncles, family and friends.

Omar was preceded in death by his mother, Brenda Ann Faines, sister, Keiana Faines, grandfather, Mahlon Faines Sir and uncle, Derrick Faines.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
