Obituary

Cirtrina Marie Turner (also known to friends and family as Candi) was born on March 27, 1967 in Presbyterian Hospital to Jessie W. Turner. She was called upon by the Lord on February 17, 2016 in Brooklyn, New York.

She attended Walton High School in the Bronx where she graduated in 1984. She also obtained numerous certificates from many different trade schools for Cosmetology. Her love for doing hair was only matched by her love for cooking and making sure everyone around her was in great health and spirits.

Cirtrina's family and friends remember her for her great vibes and positive energy. She was known to all of her children's friends as "Momma Candi" or "Auntie Candi" due to the love that she showed any child that crossed her path. To her peers both male and female, she was "sis", "sissy" or "sister". Because of this, most of the people in her life was more like family than friends.

Throughout Cirtrina's childhood, she was on quest to find her biological family until she decided to start her own.

She will be missed by her life partner, Jamal and her children's father, Vern; her children, Jesse, Devin, Vernasia, Mariah, William and Tyshawn; also, Wendy, Michael, Grace and Devon; her grandchildren, Trinity, La'Mya, Jahneal, MJ, EJ, Madison, Zylah, Creepy, Lay Lay and Bryson. She will also be missed by her brothers and sisters: William, Nate, Darlene, Terry and Tawanna; nieces and nephews: Jasmine, Tequana, Nataya, Sonny, Craig, Davonte, Neontay, Toni, AJ, Ishmel, Cie Cie, Darius, Tionne, Jermel and Michael; cousins, Cheryl, Gillian, Ragina, Robin and Carlton and a host of other family members and friends.

Serenity Prayer

GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things
I can, and the
Wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that

He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;

That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen
