I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it
now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Reflections of Life

Barbara J. Woodton was born to the late Gordie and Theresa Henderson on March 2, 1947 in Bellville, FL.

After relocating to NJ at an early age, Barbara was educated in the Newark School system graduating from Westside High.

Barbara met the love of her life Roy Woodton uniting in holy matrimony on February 20, 1970.

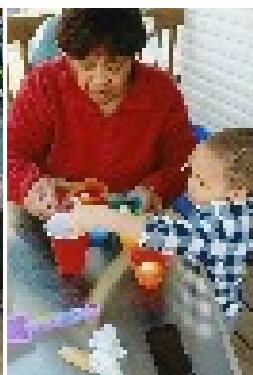

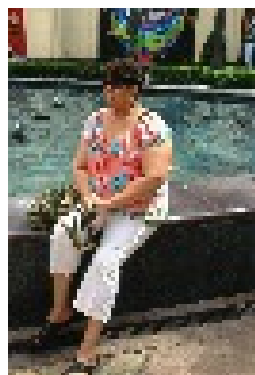

Barbara worked for Union County Day Training for many years retiring in 2008.

Barbara enjoyed taking trips to Las Vegas and New Orleans with her husband and friends. She loved reading, especially James Patterson novels.

Barbara's greatest joys were her grandchildren, spending countless hours doing activities and crafts.

In addition to her parents Barbara was preceded in death by her sisters, Hazel Waters, Daisy Parks, and Grace Pittman; her brothers, Charles and Carl Henderson; her niece, Joycelyn Bryant.

Barbara leaves to mourn: her husband, Roy Woodton; daughters, Tonja Henderson, Roychele Jones and her husband, James; her son, Roy Woodton Jr. and his wife, Joana; four grandchildren, Justin, Jordan, David and Isabella; her sisters, Margaret Jackson, Delois Day, Sandra Kershaw and her husband, Kim; her brother, Jesse Henderson and his wife, Wonder and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
