Obituary

James Junior Black was born to the late Benny and Dorothy Black on December 13, 1959 in Chesterfield, SC. He later relocated with the Black family where he spent the rest of his days up until his transition from this earthly realm.

He attended public school where he received his education and had a strong work ethic. He worked at Foremost as a supervisor for a while and was a member of New Zion Revival Temple. Not only was James a hard worker, he was also a family man who was also a role model that loved to cook.

James was joyful most of the time and he would whistle as well as sing very passionately. He always encouraged other people and expressed how proud he was of the accomplishments of others. He was always laughing and he was known to be the smoothest of the bunch. If he didn't have anything else, he surely had confidence. When he dressed up, he knew that he looked good and he would ask others "I look good don't I?" Then he would respond to his own question "I know I do".

On Monday evening February 22, 2016, James Black took his last breath. Life is truly as a vapor as it slipped away from him so suddenly. His memory will continue to live in the hearts and minds of those of us who knew him until hopefully one day, we are able to see him again. He has been proceeded in transition by his father, Bennie Black, mother, Dorothy L. Jeter-Black and sister, Theresa M. Black-Wesley.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his two children, Gentiah McKinley-Black and Ja'veon Bryant; five brothers, Arthur (Wanda) Black, Claude Junior Jeter, Jasper Black, Leonard (Bonnie) Black, and Jerry Black; two sisters, Bennie (Bent) L. Hayes and Annie L. Williams. He also leaves to cherish his memory a host of family members and friends.

Remember Me (Poem by J.Wesley)

*To my family, friends and loved ones....remember me
Remember my hugs, laughs and smile
As thoughts about me will sustain you for a while Remember my choices both good and bad
Learn from them which should not cause you to be sad
Remember my love for you is unconditional
Even if my ways of showing it was not traditional Sometimes our memories are all that we have Cherish them with your life, because we don't know when it will be our last remember me by taking charge of your life and the decisions that you make knowing that in a twinkling of an eye, it can all be gone with no opportunity to recreate Recreate experiences that we wish that we had Knowing that after death, wishing for those experiences are sad
Remember me! My hugs, laughs and smile
Remember me and it will surely sustain you for a while
There is life that you must live and be sure to live it well Take advantage of the opportunities presented, so that you can have something positive to tell.*

Acknowledgements

From The Family

The Black family would like to thank you for all of your prayers, support and acknowledgments during this time. While we have been struck hard by the angel of death, we are more than conquerors through Christ who continues to strengthen us. There is no sorrow that heaven can't heal. If we don't believe anything else, we surely believe that GOD IS WELL, ABLE AND WILLING to help us through these hard times. Continue to keep us in your prayers and we will do the same for you.
