Obituary

Steve Anthony Malcolm was born on April 5, 1983 in Trelawny, Jamaica, West Indies to Sandra Carnegie and Albert Malcolm. He departed this life on February 20, 2016.

At the age of 11, he migrated to the USA where he attended the East Orange Public School system. Steve was an entrepreneur in the construction and plumbing business.

Because of his outgoing and pleasant personality, he acquired a host of friends. They all referred to him as “Martin”. Steve was a quiet and reserved person but with family and close friends he was humorous, honest and compassionate. He was warm generous, kind, caring and always prioritized the concerns of others above his personal needs.

Steve leaves to cherish his memories: a loving mother, Sandra Carnegie; father, Albert Malcolm; brother, two sisters; aunts, Shernette, Pat, Christine, Polly, Thelma, Maria and Aleta; uncle, Backupsy; grandmother, Elmozene Bowen; cousins, Mark, Antwyn, Mike, Adenekia, Germaine, Chrissy, Christian, Marsha, Tanisha, Olivia and Keyshaun; grandfather, Llyal Malcolm; girlfriend and her three children; and a number of other cousins, aunt-in-law, uncle-in-law and friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the way,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
